

Business leaders give talk

Three business leaders will share their experiences at an MBA Association of Ireland (West) Event which will be held in the School of Business in NUI Galway next week.

The CEO Creganna, Helen Ryan; General Manager of Hewlett Packard, Rory O Connor; and John Concannon, the Managing Director of JFC Manufacturing, will speak at the evening, which will be held in the Theresa Higgins Executive MBA Suite at NUIG.

The three will focus on leadership as the theme, sharing their experiences and philosophies. There is no charge to MBAAI members and their guest for this event, which is sponsored by InterTradeIreland.

The MBAAI West membership is made up of senior managers and business leaders.

The talk takes place at 7 pm on Thursday, April 26th.

The next MBAAI West event is a members networking event on May 24.
