

Western business leaders share their expertise

Three prestigious business leaders based in the west will address members of the MBA Association of Ireland West on Thursday April 26 at the National University of Ireland Galway.

Creganna CEO Helen Ryan, Hewlett Packard General Manager Rory O'Connor, and JFC Manufacturing Managing Director John Concannon will focus on leadership as the theme, sharing their experiences and philosophies.

There is no charge to MBAAI members and their guests for this InterTradeIreland sponsored event, which is taking place at 7pm in the Theresa Higgins Executive MBA Suite, JE Cairnes Graduate School of Business & Public Policy, NUI Galway.

The MBAAI West membership is made up of senior managers and business leaders. The organisation's calendar includes a number of leading edge management and business updates and initiatives providing network opportunities for business leaders in the west.

The next MBAAI West event is a members' networking event on May 24.

For further information contact MBAAI West chairperson Jill Holtz by email on jill.holtz@nuigalway.ie