UCC to host docklands presentation

By LOUISE ROSEINGRAVE

Property Correspondent

CORK'S docklands will form a central part of an upcoming presentation taking place at University College Cork (UCC).

Director of Cork Docklands Directorate, Pat Ledwidge is the guest speaker at an upcoming MBA Association of Ireland presentation.

The MBA Association of Ireland (MBAAI) is the representative body for graduates holding the degree of masters in business administration.

The event, entitled Making Cork A Confident, Competitive City of the 21st Century — The Strategic Challenge, aims to deal with the ongoing development of Cork city.

The proposed multi-billion development of the docklands will have far reaching consequences for residents, businesses and the city.

Mr Ledwidge is to due give his insight into the strategic planning of large scale urban development projects with specific reference to the Cork docklands development project.

In doing so, Mr Ledwidge will provide a glimpse into the future of Cork.

The presentation takes place at Room 242, Brookfield Health Services Building in UCC on Tuesday, November 20, at 7pm.

Admission to the presentation is free to MBAAI members.
